

FAMILY PROMISE of HUDSON COUNTY

NEW MINISTRY at SAINT ANN CHURCH

Family Promise of Hudson County is an inter-faith, non-profit group whose purpose is to house homeless families in places of worship throughout the Hudson County. The objective *is to bring everyone together for a single cause, which is to help homeless families. Saint Ann Catholic Church will be a host parish to assist Family Promise of Hudson County with their cause.

Who We Are: Family Promise of Hudson County is a non-profit that will help to house homeless families within Hudson County.

What We Do: In addition to providing emergency sheltering, we will also provide case management and connection to resources. Our goal is to help families find sustainable and successful housing solutions.

Why We Do It: Currently, there is no other emergency shelter in Hudson County that houses the whole family. Imagine a single father raising his children and he just can't make ends meet. Currently, our area has no way to keep them together. A mother raising an adult son with disabilities would be separated because on paper, they are single adults. Family Promise of Hudson County will be able to keep these families together and can work with them to find a sustainable way back on their feet.

Why We Fundraise: Everything from cots, cribs and car seats must be purchased. We will be hiring a full time case manager and case aides to work with families. We will also be providing bus and train tickets as well as school supplies and food for families. The cost is high, but our emergency shelter model that shelters families in places of worship keeps other costs down.

What Can You Do? Consider donating or hosting a fundraiser. This will directly benefit families in Hudson County. Donations are tax-deductible and may be matched by some places of business!

Supporting Family Promise of Hudson County means that you will be helping families find their way from the street to a home of their own.

THANK YOU in advance for your generosity!!
